[legal name of the business] , trading as Bharat NRI Property Registration Services (“we”, “us”), respects your privacy. This policy explains what personal data we collect, why we use it, who sees it and what choices you have. We follow the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 and other applicable Indian law, as they come into force.

1. Data we collect

- Contact details: name, phone, email, WhatsApp number, address in India and abroad.
- Identity and tax details: passport, PAN, visa or OCI details, and other ID you give us for your matter.
- Property and family details: title papers, inheritance and family information, and names of your representative, witnesses, buyer or beneficiaries.
- Financial details: bank account details for refunds and proceeds, tax records and income details.
- Website data: device, browser and page-visit information, and any cookies. [remove if you use none]

We ask only for what is needed for your service. Please send an Aadhaar number only if we ask, and mask it where possible.

2. How we collect it

You give us this data on WhatsApp, email, phone, our website forms and by sending documents. We may also receive data from government portals and the other parties to your transaction, where your matter needs it.

3. Why we use it

- To understand your enquiry and give you a quote.
- To prepare documents, register, attest, file applications and returns, and track them.
- To verify identity and meet legal, tax and professional requirements.
- To keep you updated and to answer questions.
- To keep records and to protect our rights in a dispute.
- To improve our website and services.

We use your data with your consent and for other lawful purposes the law permits. We do not sell your data and do not use it for unrelated marketing without your consent.

4. Who we share it with

We share data only as your matter needs it, with: government offices and portals (such as Sub-Registrar offices and the Income Tax Department); notaries, embassies and consulates; banks; the advocates and Chartered Accountants we engage; couriers; and technology providers who help us store data and communicate, under confidentiality duties. We may also disclose data when the law or a court requires it.

5. Data across borders

Because you live abroad, your data may move between India and your country, and some of our providers may store it outside India. We take reasonable steps to keep it protected wherever it is.

6. How long we keep it

We keep data for as long as your matter needs and for the period the law requires, usually [e.g. 7 years] . After that we delete or anonymise it, unless the law requires us to keep it longer.

7. How we protect it

We limit access to people who need it, use secure storage and keep paper originals locked. No method is completely secure, so please avoid sending sensitive data over unprotected channels. If a breach affecting you occurs, we will inform you and the authorities as the law requires.

8. Your rights

Under Indian law you can:

- ask for a summary of the personal data we hold and how we use it;
- ask us to correct or complete inaccurate data;
- ask us to erase data, unless we must keep it by law;
- withdraw consent at any time, though this may stop us from continuing your service;
- use our grievance process, and nominate someone to exercise your rights if you cannot.

If you live in the UK or EU, you may have extra rights under local law. Contact us and we will help.

9. Cookies and analytics

[Describe cookies or analytics tools, or state that the website uses none.]

10. Children

Our services are for adults. We do not knowingly collect data from children without a parent or guardian's consent.

11. Changes to this policy

We may update this policy. The date at the top shows the latest version. We will tell you about important changes.

12. Contact and grievance officer

For any request or complaint about your data, contact: [name] , [email] , [phone] , [office address] . If we cannot resolve it, you may approach the Data [phone], [office address]. If we cannot resolve it, you may approach the Data Protection Board of India once it is in operation. See also our Terms of Use.
